Headline:
Rain and cloud clearing, leaving a dry and sunny day.

Today:
Early morning low cloud and patchy rain clears by dawn to leave a dry bright day with lengthy spells of sunshine, a little bit of warmth in the sunshine around the Aberdeen coast. Winds easing. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry and clear to start but cloud spreading east later in the evening. Some patchy light rain in the west possible later in the night and becoming windy. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Tuesday:
Cloudy but mainly dry until later when rain spreads east. A short, heavy spell of rain later. Turning colder late in the day but some late sunshine possible. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Sunny intervals and a few showers on Wednesday, feeling fresh. Turning milder with some light rain on Thursday and Friday, then brightening up later. Breezy throughout.
